

Our Camp Credo...

"We come together
for this short time to live simply, close to nature and closer to each other;
that we might
renew our respect
for the world around us, recommit ourselves to family and friends, and rejoice in God's love for us all."

Credo is Latin for "I believe," in this case a mission statement that is shared by campers and staff, guests and volunteers. First written by the staff of YMCA Camp Jewell, CT; since adopted by many camps coast-to-coast.
